 Armitage, William Wellsford Storekeeper

Whitfield (Bee) had a farm at Te Anga, just opposite to Lawford. He was killed in action, aged 30 years. He left his farm to Percival Leonard, whose plans for settling down in his new home in Wellsford were upset. "Jim" sold out in Wellsford and went to the Te Anga farm.

*William Armitage of Leeds, a 21 year old bachelor immigrant in "Matilda" was engaged in the glove and hosiery trade in the Midlands. He was quite an exceptional musician being at the age of 14 years a violinist in the original orchestra developed by Sir Charles Halle in his home city. William brought his musical ability with him, becoming the conductor of various choirs amongst the settlers. He married Mary Ann Brookes, and when their first child, Stanley William, was born at Wharehine the family moved for a while to Christchurch, where the next three children were born. Marion, Lewis and Lawford. About 1882, William was appointed manager of the Port Albert Co-operative Society's branch store on the Whakapirau Creek, and in 1885 he purchased a property of one hundred acres in what is now Wellsford County Town. Meanwhile the rest of his eleven children of Leonora and Whitfield (twins), Isobel, Robert, Lawrence, Percival Leonard and Hazel Dell were born. In 1904 the Wellsford home was moved to a farm on the Whangaripo Road, where the family lived till 1914. In that year they returned to Wellsford, but William died in 1915, His Mary Ann followed him in 1916. Wellsford, Tidal Creek to Gum Ridge.

Between Corner Fort and Le Bredeaux, east of Fleurbaix. This NCO is orderly to the RMO, and during the raid by his battalion on 21/2/17 he continued tending the carrying the wounded in "No Man's Land" and in our front line under a very heavy and accurate enemy barrage until all were got away. This voluntary and self imposed work on his part was the means of saving many and his energy and cheerfulness under heavy fire kept up the spirit of all.

Sergeant, 2nd Bn, Auckland Infantry Regiment

L.G. 29th January 1919, p1451, Rec No 2301

I beg to bring to your notice the gallant conduct of 3/483 Sgt Ormond Edward Burton during the operations of his Battalion on the morning of the 24th inst. Before the Company had proceeded 200 yards from the starting point, Sgt Burton took over his platoon, his Officer having been wounded, and with zeal led his men in the frontline of the attack. On reaching the southern outskirts of Grevillers considerable opposition was encountered and the Sergeant was sniped in the wrist. Nevertheless, and though his arm was useless, he continued to bravely led his platoon, and under constant exposure to machine gun, rifle and shellfire, he so advantageously disposed his men that the ridge running south from the village was firmly secured against the enemy. The capture of six machine guns which fell to the platoon's lot, was mostly due to the bravery and dash of the Sergeant. It was not until many hours after being wounded when his platoon was firmly established on this ridge that Serg Burton was prevailed upon to be evacuated.

In the attack near Le Quesnoy on the morning of the 4th November 1918 Craven and Jenkins as Battalion Runners were sent out with an important message to a flank Company. This Company could not be found and these runners came under fire of an enemy machine gun post at close range. Without hesitation both runners rushed the gun killing two of the enemy and wounding one with their revolvers, taking the remaining 4 of the crew back as prisoners and capturing the gun. They reported back to Battalion Headquarters with their prisoners and said the Company could not be located.

29/7/15 DUNNING, Pte Angus Roderick, AMR, who has been wounded is a son of Mrs Archibald Dunning of Leigh. He is 23 years of age and was born at Omaha

As a very young man, Pat Dunning was away with the earliest to the First World War and came through the Gallipoli campaign with what he always laughed off as "only a scratch" though a red-hot piece of shrapnel in an elbow can be a painful scratch. The official regimental records say Pat was wounded on Gallipoli in June 1915. Then with the evacuation it was back to their horses in Egypt and off to the campaign in the Sinai desert. Pa found one good reward in the war. He was selected to play rugby for New Zealand Army team, toured Britain, including some tense games in Wales, and came home after six years overseas. The Rock and the Sky, H Mabbett.

(AWN 7/6/17) Lennan, Rfm Anthony, killed in action 10 May, aged 33, was the fourth son of Mrs D Lennan, Wairewa. For about four years he was at sea, mostly cargo boats, trading around NZ. Two of his brothers are now at the front. Herman being in France and Louis in Egypt. A third brother James is now on his way to the war zone.

26/7/17 Lennan, A splendid record of one family's war service was disclosed when the Auckland Military Service Board reviewed the case of Paul Lennan, Dairyman, Wairewa. His mother Dora Lennan and Major Whitney supported the appeal for exemption on the ground of undue hardship, he being practically the sole support of his parents. Out of a family of 8 sons, one had been killed in action, three were now serving in France and one in Egypt. The sixth brother had been retained for home service and the seventh, who was married had enlisted and been granted extension of time to complete some contracts. His father was 74 years old and unable to work, while his mother at 65 was in very poor health. They lived with appellant who was the youngest of the family and had recently married. Appellant was managing a farm for a neighbour so that the latter's son could enlist. Aided by a sister, he was at present milking 39 cows. With so many brothers away he considered he had to stay and look after his parents and maintain the farm.

AMR War Diary 19/5/15 Walker's Ridge. At 12 -5 am, the enemy become very active and commence a tremendous rifle and machine gun fire along the whole front, and the Regiment immediately stand to arms. At 3 am the fire slackens almost to occasional sniping, which is taken by us as a very probable sign of impending attack. The 4th Squadron hold right and 3rd Squadron hold the left of section of fire trenches, 11th are in support. At about 3 30, the enemy assault our trenches in superior force, but are driven off at 4 30 am, by gallant counter attacks by a Troop of 4th commanded by Lieut C James and also by a Troop of 11th Squadron commanded by Lieut P Logan. A Troop of 3rd Squadron under Lieut F J Weir fought with great tenacity and drove off three charges of Turks who launched a force against No 5 sap on our left. The enemy leave the ground strewn with dead and wounded, our casualties were as follows. Killed 22, wounded 27.

He had passed unscathed through the battles of Armentieres and the Somme and various minor raids. Writing to his parents, Lt Walter Gibbs in whose platoon Cpl Nicholls served, says, "At the time he met his death I was taking the Lewis Gun to a portion of the line beyond Messines where we seen with the result that we were shelled. Your boy was the only unfortunate one, being hit by a pece of shell while sheltering for a brief moment in a trench. "For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty throughout the operations 14th August to 17th September, 1918, in the Puisieux – Bapaume area. On 25th August his section commander being killed Private Reyard took charge of his section and led it in the attack, capturing an enemy Machine Gun post which was holding up the advance of his platoon. On 7th September he took out a patrol under heavy fire, and gained valuable information which enabled our our portion of the line to be advanced a considerable distance, on some of his patrol being wounded, he personally stayed and supervised their return to our line with the result that all were brought in. Although not a NCO, Private Reynard displayed all the qualities that make a leader of men, and his personal example had a great effect upon the men of his section".

John C Wyatt (f) Leigh
AWN 7/9/16 p 46

J C E Wyatt (Eddie to his friends), who like most New Zealand's First World War veterans is now well into his eighties, joined the Territorials when they were first formed. He was actually No 9 in his 15th North Auckland Regiment on 12th May 1911, aged 19 years. He soon transferred to the 3rd Auckland Mounted Rifles, went overseas with the Main Body and can remember the parade in Warkworth on 9th August 1914, before the first 13 or 14 local volunteers left by steamer from Leigh to Auckland and an encampment at the Epsom Showground. He went to Egypt and then to Gallipoli. After the first six weeks his unit was reorganized at Lemnos and then went back to the peninsula.

*With the evacuation, it was back to Egypt to their horses and then off to the Sinai campaign. He was wounded at Bir el Abd. It was just a small affair, said Eddie, a bullet through a soft part of the leg. At Makdada they captured a lot of Turks. In the Army a soldier goes where he is sent so Trooper Wyatt was soon off to a cavalry school Heliopolis and then to gas school. His next move was to Bailliol College, Oxford, to train in the OTC for six months. After that, as a second Lieutenant, he was sent back to New Zealand to help train reinforcements at Trentham. On his final leave Eddie was married to a local lass, Miss Ivy Dunning. In camp he was made OC of the 20th reinforcements but peace caught up with them, and they did not leave New Zealand. The Rock and the Sky, H Mabbett.
