In Response To: Re: Will of Patrick Cannell (Tim Davis)

Tim, there are some major differences between your records and the Maughold parish register.

The Maughold parish register has the marriage for "1 John CANNELL" as John Cannell & Margaret Cannan married 20 Oct 1711. (No other info.) - Clearly two different surnames, Cannell and Cannan.

There are CANNAN bapts in Maughold before 1700, but no CANNELL (assume you meant b.1681) - but not in Maughold under any variation of Canel/Cannel/Cannell, except one.

There is a Margaret daur of Robert Conill bapt Maughold 24 Feb 1666/67, but no John.

There is also a John Cannan junior, son of John Cannan bapt 17 Apr 1681. But definitely Cannan, not Cannell or variation.

A John Cannell appears with the bapt of his daughter Jane on 1 Oct 1709, then with John on 19 Aug 1712, Ewan on 26 Dec 1715, and James on 28 Aug 1718. There is no mention of Ballafayle.

According to the Radcliffes' book on Kk Maughold, the first John Cannell at Ballafayle was from Lonan and married Christian Christian (daur of William) the heiress of Ballafayle, and was the reason that the quarterland became known as Ballafayle y Cannell after William Christian's death. So the land belonged to her Christian family, and was not entered under Cannell before then.

The marriage appears in the Maughold par reg as John Cannall of Kk Lonan & Christiana Christian married 13 Sep 1741.

Christin daur of William Christian was bapt in Maughold Parish Church on 18 Jun 1721. (And was not the Lezayre one you noted.) The Radcliffes write that her mother was Margaret Corkill of Braddan, and that these Christians were the last ones at Ballafayle where they had been from 1624 onwards.

Christian CANNELL als CHRISTIAN was buried Maughold Dec 27 1806.

These are the only Christian/Cannell entries in Maughold par reg burials with the place name Ballafayle, before 1800:

X Ann CHRISTIAN, ballafayle, buried Nov 21 1671

John CHRISTIAN, Ballafayle, buried Aug 30 1686

John, Son of CANNELL Ballafail buried Jul 2 1752

Edwd, Son of John CANNEL Ballafail buried Jul 6 1755

Wm CHRISTIAN of Ballafail, buried Jan 18 1759

Margaret CHRISTIAN, of Ballafail, buried Jul 7 1767

John CANNELL, Ballafail, buried Jan 25 1791

These are the Maughold bapts for the children of John Cannell & Christin Christian:

John [son of] John Cannell/ Christian [bapt] Parish Church 2 Jan 1742/43

Robert John Cannel/ Christian Parish Church 3 Jan 1744/45

John John Cannell, Ballafayle, Parish Church 19 Nov 1752

Thomas John Cannel/ Christian, Ballafail, Parish Church 4 Jul 1756

Isabel John Cannel/ Christiana Christian Parish Church 4 Jun 1759

Margaret John Cannel/ Christian Christian Parish Church 8 May 1763. Twin of Jony

Jony John Cannel/ Christian Christian Parish Church 8 May 1763. Twin of Margaret

"3 Robert CANNELL" did not marry Jane CORJEAGE in Maughold. To be sure you have the correct wife for him you need confirmation that he was from Maughold in the other parish register. The marriage on 1 Feb.1777 is in the IGI in Kk Michael as a Church Members' entry, possibly replacing an original extracted transcript. Are you sure that Robert of Ballafayle, Maughold, married in Michael and then moved to Braddan? Are there wills which support this? There were several Robert Cannells of a similar age in both Braddan and Michael.

There are no Cannell burials in Maughold on 12 Sept 1798 or on 10 Aug 1805, nor a burial in Maughold at any date for a Jane Cannell als Corjeage. There were no bapts in Maughold for children of this couple. There were however several bapts for the children of Robert Cannell and Mary Callow who married in Maughold on 10 May 1785. There was also a burial in Maughold for a Robert Cannell on June 24 1781, who could have been the Robert who was bapt 3 Jan 1744/45, unless you have evidence that the Ballafayle one moved to Braddan? There is a will for CANNELL, Robert 1781-1 Mau E w 0106396 on Brian Lawson's index which should reveal whether or not he was the Ballafayle one.

3/. JOHN CANNEL/CANNELL AND CHRISTIANA CHRISTIAN

Generation one: Robert and Jony. Generation two: John and Christiana.

Note: Christiana was the heiress to a large estate known as 'Ballafayle' at Maughold, Isle of Man. The land had been in her family for many years. John Cannel was from Lonan and probably was from farming stock as well...Reading on one will see that in the will of William Christian he leaves one half of his estate to his daughter Christiana, now the wife of John Cannell...

Above: Maughold is one of the seventeen parishes of the Isle of Man. It is named for St Maughold, the island's patron saint. It is located on the east of the island in the sheading of Garff. Administratively, part of the historic parish of Maughold is now within Ramsey town. Ballure is another settlement in the parish.

Lonan is the Parish John Cannell was said to be from before he married Christiana Christian...

Above: Standing at Ballafayle in Maughold and overlooking the green fields towards Maughold Lighthouse. How could anyone ever tire of this wonderful view?

MAUGHOLD CHURCH AND PILLAR CROSS

Maughold was named after Machaoi, a minor Celtic Saint. It is believed to have been the main pre-Norse religious community on the Isle of Man. The parish produced the largest collection of crosses and slabs during the early Christian period (6th-13th century). Most found in the churchyard, which was once the site of a Celtic Monastery about 600 AD and three keeills (chapels).

The current church goes back to 1000AD to 1100AD, though many alterations and extensions were carried out over the centuries. Much work to modernise the church took place in the early 1900's.

Made of St Bee's sandstone, this cross dates from around 1300 AD. The four-sided pillar displays different sets images, this one is of the crucifixion with the three legs of man below, one of the earliest representations of the 'three legs of man'. This pillar cross once stood outside the gates of the church, but in 1937 was moved inside the church gates. Since this photograph was taken the cross was moved again (in 1989) and is now inside the church itself to protect the decaying carvings.

CHAPTER THREE

THOMAS CANNEL AND ISABEL CLAGUE

*Generation one: Robert and Joney. Generation two: Robert and Isabella.
Generation three: Thomas and Isabel*

Note: Some Punters have recorded this Thomas (son of John) and Isabel as being connected too John Cannell and Christiana Christian at Maughold, Isle of Man. (The uncle and aunty of our couple.) After much research the compiler has decided this could not be, reason being, their Thomas and his wife Isabel had differing historical dates and do not match our Thomas and Isabel in the following census records. Their Thomas died in 1825 at Maughold and their Isabel nee Looney was born about 60 years before the 1841 census and could not have been 80 as our Isabel was in this the 1841 census...

Note: Following marriage is for the outside opposition which doesn't count. Just an example...

CHAPTER FIVE

THOMAS CANNELL AND ISABELLA CALLISTER

*Generation one: Robert and Joney. Generation two: Robert and Isabella Generation three: Thomas and Isabel Generation four: Hugh and Isabella.
 Generation five: Thomas and Isabella*

Note: Thomas was an agricultural labourer with ten acres...in the 1841 census it says he was twenty so born about 1821

Okay, from the following 1891 census record there was a whole tribe of Cannell's living at Ballarhenny/Ballahennie farm, and nearby, at Kirk Michael with Thomas and his wife Isabella still living there with sons Thomas and John who are now market gardeners... The age of Thomas at about 74 years old works for him to be the son of Hugh Cannell and Isabella Cain who had lived at Braddan, Isle of Man.

Thomas and his family are living at Ballerhenny cottage. John along with some of his family has two servants and a nurse living in his household.

Thomas and John say they were born in, Kirk Michael, Isle of Man. Both sons of Thomas and Isabella... Also on this census is another Thomas Cannell and his wife Ann living nearby at Rheneullin???

Above: Ballarhennie House is a large family holiday home set in spacious grounds, sleeping up to 6.

The property is situated just a short distance from miles of sandy beaches, near to Kirk Michael on the northwest coast of the Isle of Man.

The Isle of Man is the only entire country to be granted UNESCO Biosphere status, and together with its unique culture and heritage sites, it offers outstanding walks of majestic scenery including the internationally accredited Raad Na Foillan – “The Way of the Gull” the Island’s coastal footpath, 95 miles in length.

The house has three good sized bedrooms, consisting of a twin room and two doubles (all of which are en-suite). A large lounge offers comfortable seating for all guests, complete with a full-sized pool table, table tennis and a bar! A small snug join up with a large dining room which boasts a large table, ideal for entertaining. A large garden complete with pond, and an outdoor table is ideal for al-fresco dining!

The property adjoins a smaller private residence, and plenty of parking for two or 3 vehicles is available on the driveway.

Ballarhennie House is managed by local Isle of Man holiday cottage company Island Escapes. Please visit their website for more information.
